

Where the energy of a decapsulation goes, and what two standard remedies would save

Lower bars are projections from the measured activity, not changes to the signed-off chip. Typical corner; logic from zero-delay activity.